STRESSING THE POINT

Gunmen held up the staff of a Jasper avenue drug store the day after Chief Shute asked the city council for some more men. It is not often that the law-breakers back up the authorities by so timely ω demonstration of the need of strengthening the police force.

THE PENITENTIARY GROUNDS

Mayor Bury is probably correct in sur-mising that the city council will show no great enthusisam for paying $200,000 for the penitentary property, for recreation grounds or any other purpose. It is a safe guess that the tax-payer will not be wild-y anxious to close with that particular "offer".

"offer."

If this is the best that can be got from Ottawa by correspondence it may be us well to send the proposed delegated down to the capital. The company at least be able to the capital that the covernment proposes to do with the property, if there is any intention to do anything with it except hold it as a weed patch and it except hold it as a weed patch and

RUSSIA, A COMPETITOR

RUSSIA, a COMPETITOR

Canadian lumbermen learn with something other than satisfaction that a group of British financiers have arranged to tale the whole of Russia's export surplus is expected to total something like $50,000,000. Canadian mills would have welcomed the opportunity to supply that nuantity of timber to Britain, and would disabless have got the orders if Russia reasts. For the surplus of the surp

A PROVINCIAL "HYDRO" SCHEME?

The U.F.A. convention put itself on record as opposed to the policy of per-miting companies to develop and sell elec-tric energy in Alberta, and by resolution salled upon the Provincial Government to roreced to bring a provincially-owned hydro-electric system into existence.

hydro-electric system into existence. It was apparent from the address of the Provincial Treasurer, as it is from the course of events, that the Ministers are less anxious to undertake an enterprise of that kind and magnitude than some of the delegates were to have them do so. This difference of view-point is not strange, nor is the U.F.A. the only party in which such cleavages occur between he sentiment of a convention and the udgment of the men actually "on the

the power to expropriate private systems and to start a system on its own account should that be found to be necessary. If the object is to protect the public against unfair treatment, this can be done by statute—at no cost and at least as effectually as it would likely be done through the creation of a Government power mononly.

the creation of a Government power mon-opoly, the object is chean power, Hon. Dr. Reid frankly told the delegates that a saving of a fraction of one per cent in the cost is the most the power-user could hope for from a provincial system. If that is the maximum possible, under entirely favorable conditions and a fair amount of "good luck," the gain is not worth the risk.

The Comedian

When first your song began Old Age was near, One robed in black for some one shed a tear And there were faces lined with care and fear.

But now they laugh and vanished is all woe. Gone are the hurts and griefs which mortals know, Care cannot stay where men are laughing so,

"More, Morel" they cry, "More Merriment we m With clapping hands for happiness they plead. Who sets men laughing does a useful deed!

Science Gives its Verdict to the Oat

The oat is far richer in one essential food element than any other cereal. It contains 50% more protein than any other cereal. It contains 50% more protein than wheat, and double that of most other grains. Protein is necessary for tissue building and tissue repair, In Quick Quaker there is 16% protein, a generous proportion. With the protein are balanced abundant minerals, good for blood and home—carbohydrates, 65% to supply energy and heat—Vitamin B to help assimilation. Bulk assists the digestive processes are considered to the contained of t

Only carefully selected oats are milled into Quick Quaker. The finest of the crop and fifty years' milling experience give its fine quality. It is the breakfast that's always best for you.

Be sure to ask your grocer for Quick Quaker.
